

Leah
McClellan-Brantley
DESIGNER & ARTIST

available for
HIRE & FREELANCE

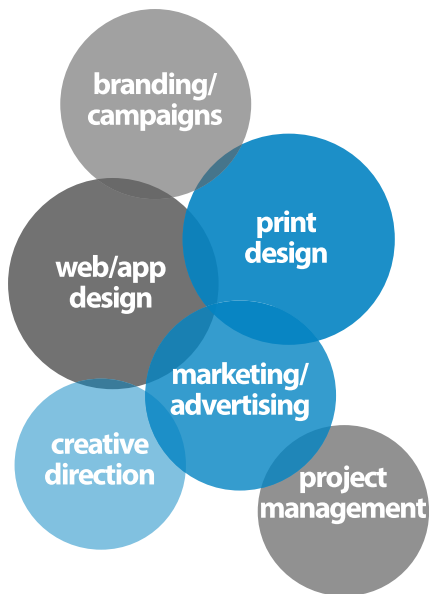

404.387.0568

galleriaby Leah.com

galleriaby Leah@gmail.com

PERSONAL STATEMENT

“ I am an Atlanta-based print & web designer and illustrator with 8 years of experience. I love the field and I love my work--for me it's not just a job; it's been my passion since I held my first crayon at age two. My background in business & marketing helps me identify trends in design & branding, and my project management experience helps me work efficiently to turn ideas into reality. I love connecting with people, and I excel at building lasting relationships with team members and clients. ”

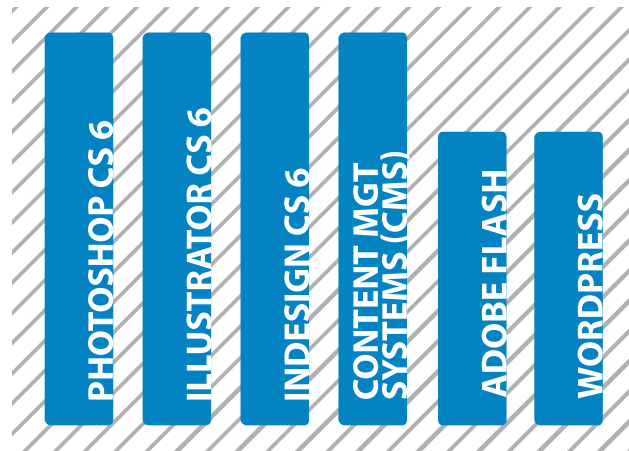

☆☆☆☆☆

☆☆☆☆

☆☆☆

☆☆

Also proficient in most other Adobe Programs & have a working knowledge of current programming languages.

EDUCATION & EXPERIENCE

Georgia Institute of Technology, Business Administration
2005-, President's Scholarship Recipient

Batson Cook Construction, Assistant Project Manager
2006

GalleriaByLeah, Graphic & Web Designer
2007-present

Design for and brand small businesses and products of large corporations using web design, print design and illustration to create a cohesive feel and present clients with a package that fits their needs. Create advertising plans and promotional materials that get businesses and products noticed and increase profit. Oversee all aspects of the business and hire and manage other team members as needed.

homedepot.com, E-Content Manager
2014-present

Design and build homepage including coming up with new concepts to reduce bounce rate. Publish content daily with programs like Documentum, Pagebuilder, Experience Manager and Fetch. Validate and troubleshoot page launches. Work alone and in teams to create wire frames, sketches and comps. Collaborate with analysts, UX, copywriters and teammates to problem solve and provide solutions to the business. Update pages into new layouts and add and remove promotions adhering to brand standards.

FAVORITE PROJECTS

Home Page, homedepot.com

Developed, designed and built new concept of Superhero themed Father's Day home page including asset creation. Used new layouts and designs to increase customer retention and sales. Supported the business through promotions, testing and personalization on the home page. Responsible for validating and troubleshooting launches over 40 times per year

How To, homedepot.com

Designed several infographics including animation to inform and help customers find products for projects on the site. Developed new style of infographic that clicked through to products to increase sales. Created visual design standards for infographics and concepted new topics for infographics

East Atlanta Village, Atlanta

Designed logos for various committees & assist with marketing and design as needed for Beautification Committee & Beer Fest

Equipcodes/Sentrinsic, Atlanta

Create Business cards, infographics, animated videos and other marketing materials within existing brand standard 